

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Systems thinking and the Family Life Cycle:

Considering key entrances and exits for the family

Program – Wednesday 19th June 2019
9:00am	Welcome & opening.
9:15am	1st Key Note P Friesen: Individual Development in the Family Crucible. Exploring the biological underpinnings of differentiation of self in the family emotional system.
10:45am	Morning tea
11:15am	2nd Key note K Wiseman: Mistakes made lessons learned in working as a family systems coach - changing the way one sees the world.
12:45pm	Lunch
1:45pm	Workshop options: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Death Three Ways- premature deaths and the impact on the family system - Martina Palombi. • Chronic pain and the family system: the influence of changes in the family on individual physiology - Jane Cooper. • Grappling with a Bowen family systems lens applied to stages of family life - Lily Mailler.
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	Clinical case presentation – Clinical presentation: Veronica Peters FSI Faculty, Reg. Psych: Working with parents who are focused on fixing their symptomatic adolescent
4:30 - 5:00pm	Summary of themes from the day; Discussion & Questions
5:15 – 6pm	Conference drinks & canapes reception (free for all participants)

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Systems thinking and the Family Life Cycle:

Considering key entrances and exits for the family

Program – Thursday 20th June 2019
9:00am	Welcome & 1st key note Kathy Wiseman: Engaging with Family Fear and Growing Telomeres - the opportunities and challenges of approaching multigenerational fear and anxiety at different times in the life cycle.
10:45am	Morning tea
11:15am	2nd key note – Priscilla Friesen: The End of Life Entries and exits of family members are important times in a family reflecting the resilience of a family system will be a useful application for all key entrance and exits in the family life cycle)
12:45pm	Lunch
1:45pm	Workshop options: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symptoms in prepubertal children & the family transition of emerging adolescents – Lisa Newling. • Cutting off in Canberra: The city for young adult escapees – Lauren Errington. • “Congratulations on the safe arrival of your.... relationship crisis!” Pregnancy and the birth of children into the family - Fiona Taylor.
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	Clinical tape - Priscilla Friesen: videotape related to the end of life issues in families.
4:30– 5:00pm	Conference panel & wrap up Optional delegates dinner at Blues Point Hotel
AND POST CONFERENCE MORNING SEMINARS Friday 21st – different venues	